ABOUT PAHCOM

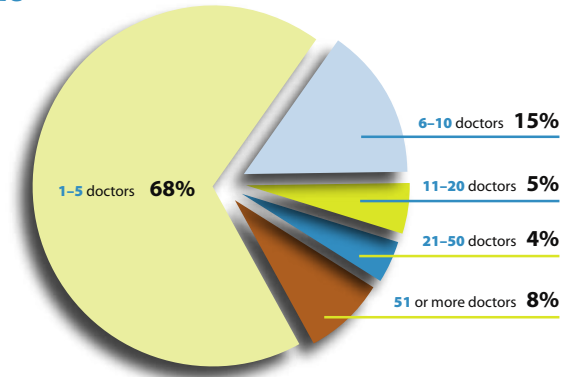

The Professional Association of Health Care Office Management (PAHCOM) is a national organization dedicated to professionalism in physician office practice. More than 3,000 managers and administrators of medical, osteopathic, and allied practices have become PAHCOM members to share knowledge and be informed about current developments in practice management.

PAHCOM helps members stay up-to-date on regulatory, management, and medical practice issues through the following:

- a bimonthly journal, The PAHCOM Journal, containing articles on pertinent industry new and best practices in office management.
- web-based resources to enable members to increase the efficiency, productivity, and effectiveness of their physician practices and look for the latest services from Corporate Members.
- the certified medical manager (CMM) credential designed specifically for physician office practice managers. The CMM credential indicates that an office manager is committed to continuing education to keep abreast of changes in health care and management practices.
- access to the member directory and resources for which PAHCOM is well known. Networking provides an opportunity for PAHCOM members to widen their knowledge of medical practice management, broaden their awareness of professional resources, and deepen their network of professional colleagues.
- the PAHCOM Annual Conference. Several days of concurrent sessions are offered to members aimed at understanding processes and improving efficiency. The exhibit hall gives members the opportunity to view the latest products and services in the industry.

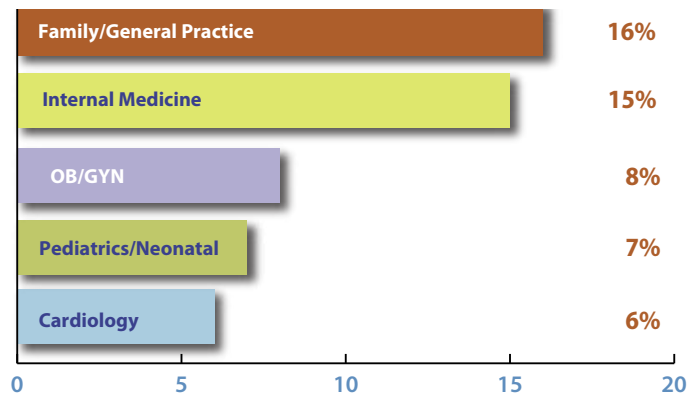

PAHCOM members manage physician practices of various sizes.
